Tickets on sale online now at www.washingtonbeer.com and at select outlets starting October 1st. Check the web site for a full list of regional ticket outlets.

BEERS:

The Washington Cask Beer Festival has become a major highlight of the Seattle beer festival scene. The event features many one-of-a-kind handcrafted, cask-conditioned beers from more than 40 of the region's most innovative microbreweries, including breweries from Washington, Oregon, and California. Also serving is Herbert's Cask Festival Beer, a special cask beer brewed collectively by the Washington Brewers Guild members. Herbert's Beer is available only at the event and select pubs during the month of October. See the festival web site for a full list of participating breweries along with the beers they will be pouring this year.

FOOD:

Seasonal food offerings by Fred's Rivertown Alehouse available during both sessions. An array of the finest pub foods to be paired with the delicate flavors of cask beers.

WABL ADVANTAGES:

WABL chapter members who sign up before Cask Festival will enjoy exclusive advantages including a $5 discount on Cask Festival tickets, one-hour early admission to the event and invitation to the WABL kick-off party at Fred's Rivertown Alehouse.

BENEFICIARY:

Washington Brewers Guild is a non-profit organization whose mission it is to build a community of Washington State brewers, advance their common interests, and promote the quality and value of locally handcrafted beer. Founded in 1998, the Guild now has over 50 members. Cask Festival is a major fundraiser for the Guild.

SPONSORS: Briess Malting; Brouwers Cafe; Columbia Distributing; FH Steinbart; Fred's Rivertown Alehouse; Gambrinus Malting; Hop Union; Wyeast USA and Yakima Chief Hop Growers.
