Bale Breaker Brewing Company—Yakima

1) Hazy L Hazy IPA

After refining our hazy game for a year with over 30 recipes in our Imagination Station, we created this unique hazy showcasing Citra and Sabro hops designed for everyday drinking. With approachable bitterness and a crisp body, this hazy is a nod to ripe East Coast hazies with our own fun West Coast spin. In the early 1900's, "Lazy L" was the cattle brand of our great-grandparents, B.T. and Leota Loftus, who planted our family's first hops in 1932.

2) Dormancy Breakfast Stout

Dormancy Breakfast Stout was initially brewed as a heavier, dark beer to get us through the cold weather months when the hops lay dormant. We call it a breakfast stout because we use certain grains--like flaked oats, victory malt, and chocolate malt--that mimic breakfast flavors. Also, we condition this beer for three days on locally roasted Lincoln Avenue Espresso Costa Rican Blend at 1 lb per barrel. There are negligible levels of caffeine in this beer--there are .11 cups of coffee/pint, or 10 Dormancys = 1 cup of coffee.

3) Sown & Grown Homegrown IPA (ABV 6.5% / IBU 55)

Homegrown hops. Homegrown barley. Homegrown beer. Sown and grown in the Yakima Valley and brought to you by Bale Breaker Brewing Company. An easy concept for easy drinking. Brewed with Simcoe, Mosaic, Loral, Citra, Ahtanum hops and Loftus family-farmed Pilsner, Vienna, and Munich malt with an IBU rating of 55 and 6.5% ABV makes for a traditional Bale Breaker hop-forward yet smooth IPA.

2) Get Amongst It IPA (ABV 6.8% / IBU 47)

We feel a bit of a kinship with our Kiwi friends in that we love to get outdoors, enjoy what life has to offer and then share a beer with our friends. Or in their words, "get amongst it!". So in celebration of our NZ friends and getting amongst it, we brewed a beer full of NZ hops. Moteuka at end of boil adds a hint of lime, while Nelson Sauvignon and a dash of Moutere in the dry hop load up the aroma with lychee, white grape and citrus.

3) Bourbon Barrel Aged Winter Warmer (ABV 9% / IBU 30)

We've added a twist to this full-bodied winter treat in the English tradition by throwing some into 10-year-old Elijah Craig barrels this year adding depth and complexity. Loaded with rich layers of malt that are first evident in the aromas and follow through on the palate with an extra punch of whiskey warmth at the finish.

4) Bourbon Barrel Aged Imperial Stout (ABV 9.5% / IBU 95)

This is a big, bold, roasty stout brewed with generous amounts of English crystal malt and roasted barley. Boldly hopped yet balanced with malt sweetness and a full-bodied mouthfeel and then aged in 10-year-old bourbon barrels to smooth out the rough edges and contribute notes of wood, whiskey and vanilla.

Watts Brewing Company-Bothell

1) The Leafcutter Kölsch (ABV 5.1%)

A crisp, pale beer inspired by the ales of Köln, Germany. We took the precision of this classic German style and adapted it to the American palate with PNW hops, producing a beer of surprising depth and nuance for such a refreshing style.

2) Blackjacket Schwarzbier (ABV 4.5%)

This take on an old-school German schwarzbier pairs Kolsch yeast with debittered dark malts. Though dark in color, it is still light on the palate, with hints of coffee, oreo cookies, and light citrus.

3) Solitary Series: Winter 2019 Baltic Porter (ABV 9%)

The Solitary Series is our line of special release strong ales. This winter's masterpiece is a unique Baltic porter, a style resulting from cross-pollination between the brewing cultures that brought you London porter, Russian imperial stout, and German doppelbock.

Whitewall Brewing-Marysville

1) Dirt Track Brown Ale (ABV 6.4% / IBU 27)

A true showcase of rich malt characteristics, our brown ale starts with aromas of toasted whole wheat bread alongside a roasted-nuttiness. Similar flavors carry through with a complement of earthy and floral English hops. Hop bitterness is restrained but helps balance dark malt flavors.

2) Jaywalking Grandma Peppermint Milk Stout (ABV 8.0% / IBU 45)

Our third annual collaboration with our friends at Middleton Brewing in Everett. This is an Imperial Milk Stout with Candy canes. We add 1 pound of candy canes per boil to give a hint of mint in the aroma and flavor. This is the hooch Grandma was drinking when she got "run over by a reindeer.
